WHAT IS COMMUNITY?

How do we define community? Not by street names or a pin on a map. Community is defined by the people whose lives intersect there. The definition depends on how those people choose to act, interact and react within their community, with each other. How do you define your community? And how does your community define you?

Community shapes each of us... and each of us chooses how we will shape community.

It's billed as a North American first — a crime-fighting mobile app for smartphones to be unveiled Wednesday by Toronto police and the city's Crime Stoppers program. The app includes interactive features that enable Toronto-area residents to alert police in real time about a crime or potential crime through photos, video, emails, text, and a button that autodials Crime Stoppers. Const. Martin Douglas, Toronto Crime Stoppers youth and social media officer, says the organization receives over 200 anonymous tips per week. He says many people who witness crimes often don't report them for fear of being identified, but with this app, Source / © The Canadian Press, 2012 says Douglas, police and Crime Stoppers hope bystanders will "feel more empowered to be socially responsible and take action." The app also includes a database of some of city's wanted criminals, social media updates and a GPS locator to nearby police stations. "Whether it's schoolyard bullying, drug abuse or shootings, we need Toronto's residents to step up and help keep our neighbourhoods safe with information on criminal misconduct," said Toronto Crime Stoppers chairman Gary Grant. "Ultimately we have a responsibility to look out for each other."

Indulge in delights

In response to concerns about urban sprawl in the Golden Horseshoe region—where population is projected to grow at one of the faster rates in North America—the Ontario government passed the Places to Grow Act in 2005. The main upshots of the Act were the establishment of a 1.8 million-acre 'green belt' across the region and a 25-year growth plan for the region (the 'Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe', released in 2006). The creation of the Growth Plan was a watershed event that, among other things, set new rules for official municipal land development plans.

Nearly one-quarter of working adults simply don't like their jobs.

They desire a career transition because they want to find jobs they actually enjoy. In some cases, that means inventing a job for themselves, which is why 12% of survey respondents have decided to start their own businesses.

EXPRESS OURSELVES

From China to Toronto, thousands of people worldwide have joined the Occupy Wall Street movement. The movement started in September of this year, 2011, when people across the globe unleashed their frustration over different issues including unemployment, healthcare costs, and corporate greed. The causes of all these problems, according to the Occupy Movement, are the banks and the super rich.

Three billion people around the world live on less than $2 per day, with nearly half of this segment subsisting on less than a single dollar per day. According to the World Bank Development Research Group, an annual household income of $47,500 places a family in the top 1 percent of earners globally while an income of $25,400 places them in the top 10 percent.

*AND WE

The financial crisis of 2007–2008, also known as the global financial crisis and 2008 financial crisis, is considered by many economists to be the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

The U.S. Senate's Levin–Coburn Report asserted that the crisis was the result of "high risk, complex financial products; undisclosed conflicts of interest; the failure of regulators, the credit rating agencies, and the market itself to rein in the excesses of Wall Street.

Happy friends
make you happy

People are happier when they are with other people than when they are alone. The happiness of an immediate social contact increased an individual's chances of becoming happy by 15%. They also are finding that happy people are more pleasant, helpful, and sociable.

Where we give and take

Between now and 2030, urban areas will expand by more than 1.2 million sq. km. By then, a little less than 10% of the planet's land cover could be urban. Creating a huge impact on biodiversity hotspots and on carbon emissions in urban areas.
