THE BEARDED LADY

Internet Topic Forum: // excessive hair

Since i was 13 it started growing now there is hair around my body it's black hair from my face like a mans beard and all, its grows on my Chest, stomache, groin, butt, legs, and some other areas,
my life is very hard living with cruel people. After I shave I feel cute but mostly,

I am a freak of nature, gods
cruel joke since the platapus

Bearded Platypus
(Ornithorhynchus anatinus)

HE MAY BE A VAMPIRE

Internet Topic Forum: //vampires

Dracula coasts, not fly or nothing.
My teeth are sharp
and I dont know,
I do like blood.
I think i am a vampire, I can coast at night.

THE CONSPIRACY THEORIST

Internet Topic Forum: // aliens

It makes sense and it’s logical to think Aliens are up to no good. People should not trust them or take any gifts. The worst part is the rich elite have all ready sold us out! for thier own profit. Although it’s not worth the paper it’s printed on and isn’t gauranteed. WILL SOMEBODY PLEASE RESPOND, IS THERE ANYONE OUT THERE, I THINK WE SHOULD DISCUSS

THE SNAKE CHARMER

Internet Topic Forum: // snakes

I read always snakes cant feel but I know thats wrong. My friend who would know, says you can develop a relationship and have them know you. Even love you. Her 12ft piebald Python has slept with her for 3 months now. He hasn't tried anything on her, perfect behaviour. And if someone comes into the room he hisses and lunges trying to protect her. If he is smart enough to protect her it shows he cares. And any snake that can get an emotional attachment to a person stands to reason they feel love...

I think her case will be used in the future to prove that a snake can love.

VINTAGE ALIENS

Internet Topic Forum: // aliens among us

We were walking the dog in the woods and saw movement through the trees. As we rounded the corner, we came upon the oddest group of people. Their clothing was weird – top hats, full length skirts, lacy blouses. They had set up some kind of picnic in the clearing. We thought they might have time-travelled and got stuck here and were trying to act like humans in the present century.

Later we figured they were aliens trying to act human and completely failing.

BODY ODOR BOYFRIEND

Internet Topic Forum: //body odor

I keep obsessing about his stink. How to tell someone the truth about having foul smelling body odor without having it taken for a deadly insult and the risk of reprisals. I would like to help but I fear the consequences of telling him that I cannot have him in the house anymore because he stinks the whole place. Even when you go to a room he is not in... you smell him. It makes me hate him and forget about love, it got drowned out by his stink long ago. Have you any workable suggestions?

GEORGE JONES SINGS

Internet Topic Forum: // celebrity

George Jones songs repeat over and over again in my head until i play the song just as good as he can. When i first meet someone i like for the first time, I start planning how soon I can sing it to impress them. It's all I think about, wish I could stop doing this as no ladies today seem to like George Jones.

“George Jones songs repeat over and over in my head.”

CHEM TRAIL QUESTIONER

Internet Topic Forum: // government coverup

I am not obsessed with chem trails but it bugs me why they do it. It's like if you're a pig and the farmer sprays you with a fine mist of poo. If your'e the pig you don't give a poo. But we aren't pigs I hope. So stand up and ask questions to the government or your'e nothing but sheep.

ALYSSA'S USED FLOSS

Internet Topic Forum: // celebrity crush

I am obsessed with Alyssa Milano and her dental floss.
And the crew that worked on the set of Who's my Boss are completely taking advantage of me on ebay.

THE DOPPLER TODDLER

Internet Topic Forum: // my child

I know kids are strange but my 4 year old son endlessly stares at the Doppler Radar on tv until it puts him to sleep. He also remembers the names of every business we pass by in the car, and yells them out as we pass them by. It makes us laugh every time. But we are starting to think he may be Autistic.

THE HAPPY STRONGMAN

Internet Topic Forum: // steroids

I find that the pharmacy steroids has no bad side affects like the underground roids from Brazil that used to screw me up. I make love like a beast. The only anger i get is when some guy starts spotting me during my set and not ask. And guys thinking thier huge with chicken legs and huge arms from stacking growth hormones with insulin. I'm really nice and very giving on it. I've never felt better. I'm dreading the day I have to stop.

SEND IN THE CREEPY CLOWN

Internet Topic Forum: // clown fears

I have seen clown monsters on the Astral level and it makes me question clowns that entertain children. I think it may be an attempt to get kids to believe in these entities. Others have seen these monsters too but seem hesitant and uncomfortable to say so on this forum.

THE SHRINKING HAIRLINE MAN

Internet Topic Forum: //balding

I am fixated on my boyfriend's hairline and how much it has been receding recently. His hair is quite dark and his skin is so white it's translucent, you can't help notice it receding. I feel guilty especially considering my own hair battles and hair shedding episodes and how good he was to me, I get angry that it doesn't phase him. :oops:

THE PREPARED PREPPER

Internet Topic Forum: // end of world

There's a computer in Zurich that can detect every person on the planet it's called The Eye. It will control us all. Now human existence faces the worst satanic plague ever. I have no doubt it will happen this year. I have spent $5000 MORE on shells, gas cooker, water tablets, tents ect. I said before I would Quit my job but i have a lot of holidays built up so I am going to try to use those up first. You have to have a plan when it comes down.
